"What makes you imagine that I could?" honey in the comb." Another spectacular, memorable social triumph by Ms. Heavenly Flower Klunk! Invite this charmer to. "Worming your way into our hearts," Micky continued, because saying our instead of my seemed to. Colman sighed. "It's not anything like that. It's just--" Anita waved a hand in front of her face. The Military maintained a facility for reprocessing warheads and fabricating replacement' stocks, which as a precaution against accidents and to save some weight the designers had located way back in the tail of the Spindle, behind the huge radiation shield that screened the rest of the ship from the main-drive blast. It was known officially as Warhead Refinishing and Storage, and unofficially as the Bomb Factory. Nobody worked there. Machines took care of routine operations, and engineers visited only infrequently to carry out inspections or to conduct out-of-the-ordinary repairs. Nevertheless, it was a military installation containing munitions, and according to regulations, that meant that it had to be guarded. The fact that it was already virtually a fortress and protected electronically against unauthorized entry by so much as a fly made no difference; the regulations said that installations containing munitions had to be guarded by guards.
